The battleship Mikasa, recently completed in England, for Japan, is said to be the finest and most formidable war ship afloat.

There were fifty suicides in the city of Chicago in the Month of May. When a person makes up his mind to get out of that town he generally finds some way to do it.

Some of the New York papers are complaining about what they call the "smoke nuisance." If the coal strike continues and coal keeps going up in price, that "nuisance" will be very likely to abate itself.

The Asheville Citizen notes a rumor that the Republican Senators are patching up a job to add to the U. S. circuit judges in the South to provide for Senator Pritchard when he has lost his job as Senator.

A Yankee with an eye to business has erected some pumps on the river Jordan and is now supplying churches all over Europe with Jordan water. Judging from the business he is reported to be doing he doesn't find "Jordan a hard road to travel."

To Mrs. Botha, wife of General Botha, is given the credit of bringing about the negotiations with Gen. Kitchener, which have brought the war to an end. Kitchener is an Irishman, and Mrs. Botha has Irish blood in her, being a descendant of Robert Emmet. Good stock.

Edison doesn't talk much but he keeps on doing things. In addition to perfecting his storage battery, by which automobiles, &c., can be run a hundred miles over a rough road with one charge, and no smoke, steam, heat or offensive odor, he has invented an automobile which does not weigh more than half as much those ones now in use.

A well educated young lady, aged eighteen years, daughter of a wealthy iron merchant of Des Moines, Iowa, had a spat with her fellow and to spite him took to the road and became a tramp. She footed it for five weeks and was finally tracked to Madison, Wis., where she was taken in by the police.

Tom Edison is somewhat deaf, but he is just deaf enough to suit him. He can hear well enough to hear what he wants to hear and is deaf enough not to hear what he doesn't want to hear, which he thinks an excellent arrangement. He therefore declined to let an aurist perform on him who guaranteed to fully restore his hearing in a little while.

HANOVER SEASIDE CLUB ENJOYED FORMAL OPENING.

Many People Attended Highly Successful Event on Carolina Beach—Prize Winners in Contests.

The fifth annual opening of the Hanover Seaside Club at Carolina Beach yesterday and last night was one of the most signally successful events of its character in the history of that popular organization. The weather conditions were well nigh perfect for an outing of the kind and on each trip, the steamer Wilmington carried large crowds of clubmen and their friends. The attendance during the day was more than 300.

The House Committee, who had all arrangements in charge, was composed of Messrs. H. Geischen (chairman), F. A. Bissenger and Wm. Tiencken, and those gentlemen provided a programme of entertainment which could not be excelled. They are deserving of great credit for the pleasant manner in which the opening passed off.

In the bowling alley contest for gentlemen, Mr. J. G. L. Gieschen, a popular member of the club, won the first prize, which was a handsome dress suit case. He made a record of 30 points out of a possible 30, and Mr. E. P. H Strunck won second prize—a silk umbrella—by making 28 points out of a possible 30.

In the ladies indoor target practice, Miss Marie Russ won first prize—a pretty silk pillow—and Mrs. J. T. Runge won the second, which was a handsome fan.

The opening of 1902 will long be remembered as one of the most pleasant in the history of Hanover Club. In addition to other attractions there was music and dancing during the afternoon and at night.

The last boat reached the city at midnight.

N. C. MEDICAL BOARD

First Examinations for Eighty-one Applicants for License Submitted Yesterday.

ENTERTAINMENT OF VISITORS

Seashore Hotel Has Over 200 Guests and All Are Delighted With the Beach. Materia Medica, Therapeutics and Chemistry Subjects.

Eighty-one applicants before the N. C. State Board of Medical Examiners yesterday received their initial examinations in the ball room of the Seashore Hotel on Wrightsville Beach. The subjects were materia medica and therapeutics and chemistry, the first having been submitted in the morning by Dr. Edward C. Register, president of the Board, and the second in the afternoon by Dr. T. S. McMullan, of Hertford.

The embryo doctors got down to work "on the jump" as the baseball people would say, and completed their answers during the afternoon. The questions were as follows:

MATERIA MEDICA AND THERAPEUTICS.

What are the Medical uses of Guaiacol?

What is diphtheria Antitoxin? Give dose and method of administration.

What is the action of Aconite on the heart?

Give symptoms of Antimony poisoning.

What medicines are incompatible with Calomel?

What does a Seidlitz powder contain?

Describe the physiological action of Heroin.

How would you treat a case of Arsenic poisoning?

How many minims of tr. of opium are equal to one grain of powdered opium? How much paregoric is equal to one grain of powdered opium? What is the equivalent strength of morphia in each?

What is the differential diagnosis between Alcoholic narcosis and uremic unconsciousness?

CHEMISTRY.

What is Osmose? What substances are most likely to dyalize, and which have no such tendency?

What is meant by "chemical affinity?" What physical forces tend to decompose compound substances.

What is chemical "analysis" and what is chemical "synthesis?" Mention the elements existing in the gaseous state.

What is organic chemistry according to modern views, and mention the four chief elements entering into organic compounds.

To what chemical group does Glycogen belong? State where it is found, its properties and how acted on by dilute acid.

Why are astringent liquids useful in poisoning by vegetable akaloids? What is an antitoxin?

What is a Proteid? What is a Peptone? State the characteristic chemical difference between the two.

State in a general way the chemical difference between animal and plant life.

Describe Trommer's test for sugar in urine. What precaution must be observed, and state the chemical reaction if sugar be present.

The examination this morning will be on "Diseases of Women" by Dr. Albert Anderson, of Wilson, and this afternoon the young physicians will tell what they know about surgery in an examination by Dr. D. T. Tayloe, of Washington.

Those competent to judge of such matters say that the examinations submitted yesterday were very thorough, well prepared and reasonable. The Board is composed of some of the best talent in the State and the members are being very generously complimented for their manner of conducting the examinations this year.

Manager Hinton, of the Seashore Hotel, is doing his best to give the visitors every pleasure of the Beach, and all seem to be enjoying themselves to the utmost extent. A dance will be given to the guests of the Seashore by Manager Hinton to-morrow night.

IMPROVEMENTS AT CASWELL.

Water Works to Be Constructed, Artesian Well Deepened and Buildings Moved.

Extensive improvements are still going forward at Fort Caswell. A contract will shortly be awarded for deepening the present artesian well of 800 feet and also for the construction of a complete waterworks system. The water works plant will consist of a pump and boiler house, pumping machinery, a steel tank of 160,000 gallons capacity with trestle, a distribution system, well system and suction pump.

It has also been decided to move and repaint the ordnance storehouse, bachelor officers, quarters and to lay new brick foundations for all. Temporary post headquarters will also be repainted.

Mr. Sam Potts Ill.

The numerous friends of Mr. Samuel C. Potts, of Lake Waccamaw, will regret to know that he has been suffering several weeks with chronic gastritis. He has been brought to the Walker Memorial Hospital in Wilmington for treatment by Dr. W. J. Love. Mr. Potts is a member of Stonewall Lodge, No. 1, K. of P., of this city, and is receiving the attention of his brethren in that order.

Young Bicyclist Ran Over.

Arthur Miller, the 10-year old son of Mr. J. A. Miller, corner of Tenth and Chesnut streets, was run over by a vehicle yesterday as he was riding a bicycle and severely cut about the head. Dr. E. S. Pigford was summoned and gave the little fellow all the attention possible.

COUNTY AUDITING BOARD IN MONTHLY SESSION.

Treasurer Green's Statement for May, Showing Receipts and Disbursements of the Different Funds.

The auditing committee of the Board of County Commissioners held its regular monthly meeting yesterday afternoon, Chairman D. McEachern and Messrs. Gabriel Holmes and H. L. Vollers having been in attendance. About the only matter of public interest, aside from the auditing of the regular bills, was the adoption of the treasurer's report for May, which shows receipts and disbursements as follows:

Receipts—Balance, general fund, $3,920; special fund, $1,759.41; road fund, $47,816.68; sinking fund, $371.33; back taxes, $51.80; rents, $6.75; court cost in case of Frank Haymore, $16.05; refunded attorney's fee in tax suit, $100; refunded tax from Board of Education, $4.75; marriage license, $30.90; Total, $54,067.67.

THE LABOR TROUBLE ADJUSTED.

Mill Employes Returned to Work—As to Cause of the Disturbance.

Mr. J. A. Arringdale, vice president and general manager of the Cape Fear Lumber Co., made satisfactory arrangements with the laborers who walked out of the mill Wednesday and yesterday morning they returned to work as usual and no further trouble is expected.

In making a note of the walk-out in yesterday's STAR the rather broad assertion was made that white labor organizers were believed to have been at the bottom of the affair. By this statement no implication in or reflection was intended to be made upon the organized labor unions of the city and particularly none as to the Carpenters' and Joiners' Union which is composed of substantial men, who had no interest whatever in the matter, their union, the strongest in the city, having for its object the cultivation of pleasant relations between employer and employe and resorting to strikes only when strikes are absolutely necessary to their own protection.

GREENSBORO, N. C., June 5.—A nice clean game was played by both teams here this afternoon. Wilmington made its first appearance of the season and a good impression. The new men showed up well but lack of cohesion lost the battle. Lawson bids fair to be one of the best short stops in the League. O'Neill at second played wonderful ball, while Hines at left showed up as a fast player. The team seemed full of spirit and life under the new management. Krouse pitched a good game. Practice together is all that is apparently needed. Manager Mace speaks highly of the prospects.

Not From the Horse Editor

They Are Only Substitutes.

— The present baseball management assumes no liability for contracts or liabilities of the former management.

— Raleigh Post: "Fisher is an all-round ball player of whom any team should be proud. He has made many friends in Raleigh."

— Raleigh Post: "That unassisted double by Dommel on Tuesday was among the prettiest plays ever seen on this diamond."

— Brandt, of Charlotte, allowed only two hits in the game with Newbern Wednesday. O'Stein, of the Charlotte team, is very ill at his hotel.

— Raleigh has released Bill Farrell, first baseman, and signed Davis in his stead. Pat Rollins, catcher and outfielder, has been signed from the Pennsylvania League.

— Raleigh claims that Manager Bennett, of the Shreveport, La., team, has been to Wake Court House and is trying to lure some of her players away. We don't believe it. What does Bennett want with them?

— Philadelphia Sporting Life: "Wilmington continues her losing streak, but with the change in the management and the strengthening of her team she will soon begin to win some games. The public have nobly supported a losing team there."

— Greensboro Telegram: "Messrs. John G. Hines, W. J. Lawson, Harry J. O'Neil, the new players whom Manager Mace has signed for Wilmington, arrived this morning and registered at Clegg's. They will await the arrival of the home team to-morrow."

— On account of their generous assistance to baseball in Wilmington this season and many past, the Board of Directors yesterday afternoon decided to reduce the price of admission for ladies to the grand stand to 15 cents, instead of 25 cents, as heretofore, with no general admission at the gate.

— Manager Mace while in Washington placed an order for eleven new uniforms which will be here Monday subject to inspection. If they are all right the reorganized team will appear in them for the game the same afternoon. The ladies of the city have generously set to work to meet the payment, and the new dress for the team will be all the more appreciated for that.

— Those who have been accustomed to view the game from some lofty perch in a tree top, standing in buggies and carriages or hanging to the fence will no longer enjoy that privilege. The Park grounds have been leased by the Baseball Association, and notices posted that no such trespassing will be allowed. Policemen will see that the law is enforced.

— The Fayetteville Observer gives this incident of a game there this week between the Fayetteville and Smithfield negro teams: "During the progress of the game one of the players was hit a terrific blow on the head with a ball and knocked senseless. A bucket of iced lemonade near at hand was dashed on him and he promptly came too."

The Game This Afternoon.

This "manifesto" reached the desk of the H. E. last evening:

To the "Hoss Editor" of the Morning Star.

"DEAR MR. EDITOR:—The patronesses and team captains of the Bachelor-Benedict baseball game, to be played at Hilton to-morrow at 4:30 P. M., beg that you will act as umpire on this momentous occasion. In making this request they are not unmindful of the severe task it will entail upon you, and the many personal risks you are likely to encounter; so they have made request to the City police authorities for ample protection to your person, both at the grounds and on returning therefrom, and they would admonish you to go yourself thrice armed.

"Trusting that you will accept, and with solicitations for your future safety and longevity, Respectfully,

"B. G. EMPIE, captain, Bachelors.
"F. A. LORD, captain, Benedicts.
"For the Patronesses and Teams."

The line up of the teams will be exactly as stated in yesterday's issue, except that Mr. Geo. D. Crow will take the place of Mr. Robt. Nash, who was called away from the city last night on business.

A letter from Manager Mace received yesterday morning from Washington says while there he selected at Tappans, the largest sporting goods house in that city, a set of beautiful uniforms for the team. The only thing now necessary to get these uniform here quickly is the money and a large attendance at to-day's game will go far towards settling this question.

BY WILLIAM H. BERNARD

WILMINGTON, N. C.

FRIDAY MORNING, JUNE 6.

THIS SECTION AS A GRAIN GROWER.

Yesterday we produced from the Charleston News and Courier its report on the grasses and forage crops grown on the little government farm at the Exposition, a most valuable report to the farmers of this section. We herewith give its report of some of the grains grown which want of space prevented us from producing yesterday. After speaking of hemp from France, planted March 28th, and jute from India planted April 16, the former of which had attained a height of 3½ feet the latter 2½, it says:

There are twenty-three varieties of wheat on the grounds. Five of the best are taken for examples.

Varaovardeux, from Germany; bearded. Planted in December, was ready to harvest May 15. A very fair head. Will make about 35 bushels to acre.

Valley wheat, from California; bearded. Has three grains to the mesh. The ear is fully 4½ inches long. The grains are full and fat. Would make about 30 bushels to the acre. Was ready to harvest about the first week in May. "It is a splendid wheat for this section; there is no better wheat for a farmer to plant."

Purple top stem wheat; beardless. Was planted the first week in December. Was ready to harvest in five months from day of planting.

Little Club wheat. So called from the plump, stocky appearance of its heads. Extra early. Planted first week in December. Was ready to harvest in four months and ten days after planting. Matured two weeks earlier than any other variety on the grounds. It should be planted early in October on high and dry land and would be ready to harvest the last week in April. Does not require much rain.

Rust-proof wheat from Austria. Planted December 26. Was ready to harvest May 15. "It is a splendid wheat, makes a fine yield, and is adapted to any wheat land, either highland or lowland.

Commenting on this the News and Courier, which is enthusiastic, and deservedly so, over the results attained on this little experimental farm, says:

Col. H. E. Dorch, the commissioner for Oregon, represents a great wheat-growing State, and is familiar with the crop in all the great wheat region of the West. He expressed himself yesterday as profoundly impressed by the exhibit here as showing the capabilities of this State and section for growing the same crop, and laid great stress on the "important advantage" they have because of the early maturing of the crop in this region, which insures the grain against the injurious effects of "hot winds" in the early Summer months, when it is in the milk stage. He remarked that the tests on the Exposition grounds had proved that wheat can be harvested here two or three weeks earlier than in Arizona and California, in the same latitude, and two months earlier than in Oregon. And this advantage is an important one, when it is considered that the first wheat in the market commands the best prices. He could see no reason why this section should not compete, on favorable terms, with the "great wheat States" in growing their special crop for profit.

The cereal department of the exhibit has taught this important lesson to our farmers and visitors alike, and it may well be worth to the State every year many times the whole cost of the Exposition on this account alone. It is scarcely less valuable for the lessons it affords regarding the numerous other crops growing alongside the wheat in like profusion and excellence. It is too valuable an exhibit, certainly, to be lost or thrown away, as we cannot readily replace it. It has cost the United States Government a large sum of money to organize and establish it for us, under the most scientific and skilled direction available in the country. We could not re-establish it except by the same means. Having it, we should keep it. We are informed that thirty different kinds of grasses that were tried on the grounds failed because they could not withstand the winter's cold. Those now growing there have stood that test, and are of special interest for that reason. The next important test is to find which of the fifty surviving and now flourishing varieties will stand the summer's heat and droughts. Half the value of the exhibit will be lost if this is not made—if the exhibit is abandoned or not properly cared for. It should be preserved and kept in order, and extended and developed at any cost. It is, we believe, the most important and most valuable industrial exhibit of the Exposition. It has lost no part of its great value because of the closing of the Exposition. It should be preserved at all costs.

There is no reason why the varied crops that are growing so grandly on the exhibit should not be grown on every available acre in this region, in a few years. And it would pay Charleston handsomely if they were grown only on every available acre throughout Charleston county.

The News and Courier is right in its estimate of the value of such an exhibit to the farmers and to the State of South Carolina, and right again in urging that the work be followed up to complete the test of the Summer value of some of the plants that had demonstrated their hardihood to withstand Winter's cold, to find which can not only stand cold but also heat and drought. Grasses that can resist heat and dryness of soil are of more value to this section than those which could stand Winter's cold and might succumb to too much sunshine and too little rain. There are some grasses that have been successfully grown in the South which we know will do both, some which are proof against both cold and heat, but they are not appreciated as they should be, but are rather looked upon by farmers as nuisances because they persist in living in spite of the determined efforts to kill them.

We have long been an advocate of experimental farms and believe that every farmer should have one of his own, for there is no department of human industries where experiment is more needed, more practicable at little expense, or where it will pay better. The results attained on one acre are proof of what could be done on millions of acres under similar conditions, and the addition made to the value of a one acre crop would apply to every acre of the millions cultivated under the same conditions, which would mean an immense increase in the income from those acres, not for one year only but for all years. That's where the value of experimenting on the farm comes in, and therefore we believe it would be business sense of the first order for every State, and every county, and every township, when practicable, to have an experimental farm, conducted by competent persons and in a thorough business-like way. We have some experiment stations which are doing good work as far as they go but there are not enough of them and they have not the means at their command to do as much as they could do if more liberally supported. They would cost money, of course they would, but they would if well managed be worth inestimably more than they would cost. There is one in Minnesota which by its success in hybridging and producing superior kinds of wheat, has added millions of dollars annually to the value of the wheat crops of the West. It is still pursuing its good work on that line.

The report which we copy above speaks of some kinds of wheat which will yield 30 and 35 bushels to the acre. That has been done in numerous instances in this State, some of it on reclaimed land, too, land that had been pronounced "worn out" and dead, too poor to grow anything of value. We have seen 35 bushels produced to the acre and have heard on reliable authority of 50 on small tracts. The Holt farm in Alamance county has produced 40 bushels to the acre on a 100 acre field. That beats California, famed for its wheat and its yields.

And yet there are people in this section who have an idea that we can't grow grasses, grains, etc., as well as other States, simply because we have never given either the attention they should have or fully tested the capabilities of our soil.

But we are learning, and are helped very much by such object lessons as the Government farm at the Charleston Exposition gave.

BECOMING SERIOUS.

Chicago dispatches say that the teamsters' strike in that city is becoming serious. Judging from the reports of the rioting, the shooting, clubbing, men hurt and killed, and the chaos that reigns, it looks very much that way to a person at a distance. The exhausted police are unable to cope with the numerous and daily reinforced rioters, who seem to have matters pretty much in their own hands.

And this is all the result of a disagreement as to a matter of wages between the teamsters employed by the packing companies, and the packers, who refused to agree to the demands of the teamsters and undertook to supply their places with new men and to continue business as usual. This led to the rioting, the striking teamsters attacking the men who took their places. This called for police intervention to guard and protect the drivers, a job to which the force has not proved equal, because the strikers and their sympathizers and accomplices are ten to one, and raise Cain simultaneously in different localities.

All this might have been averted by a little cool-headed, common sense management, and a little mutual concession, but the packers got mad, refused to yield anything, defied the strikers, and then the strikers got mad, defied the packers and the police and the racket began, which (not to speak of the people killed and wounded,) will cost inestimably more than a conciliatory agreement would have cost. As is usually the case, whatever the merits of the dispute in the beginning, both sides have put themselves in the wrong; the packers by their obstinate refusal to listen to the strikers, and their efforts to run their wagons under guard when they knew they would be attacked, and the strikers by assaulting the hired teamsters and preventing the delivery of meat to customers in and outside of the city. They doubtless decided that this was necessary to the success of the strike, and perhaps it was, but this does not justify it. They had no right to defy the law, the officers of the law, to punish the public and resort to violence to carry out their purpose.

Now there is talk of the calling in of State troops and of arbitration, the latter of which should have been done at first and thus prevented disorder and the necessity of resorting to force to preserve the peace. The public should not be at the mercy of haughty and stubborn employers and of stubborn, law-defying employes. It has rights that both ought to consider and be compelled to respect.

Some Englishmen express the opinion that in the peace deal with the Boers, Britain got the peace and the Boers the honor. And both got the experience.

GETTING THE NEGROES INTO TROUBLE.

In nearly every strike that occurs now in the North, in lines of business where negro labor can be employed, negroes are imported from the South to take the place of the strikers, and when that is done it almost invariably results in assaults by the white strikers and battered anatomies for the negroes. We do not remember a single instance out of the many where the attempt has been made which did not result in violence, and where the working of the negroes did not prove a failure and had to be abandoned, after some of the negroes had been killed and others injured.

These negroes are imported when the importers know, or ought to know, it will provoke violence, by which the negroes will be the principal sufferers, and they know, too, that such importations are in opposition to public sentiment, whether that be with the strikers or not, for public sentiment does not like to see white labor supplanted by the cheaper and degraded black labor, which is not welcome at any time nor under any circumstances. This sentiment was so strong several years ago that when during a strike in the Illinois coal mines the operators imported gangs of negroes from Kentucky and Missouri to take the places of the strikers, they were met at the depots and attacked before they got off the trains, and the then Governor, Tanner, a Republican, publicly declared that if the companies persisted in bringing in negroes he would plant cannon on the State line and fire on the trains carrying negroes which crossed it. The attempt had to be abandoned and hundreds of the negroes, deserted by the men who brought them in, had to find their way back and live on the charity of the country through which they tramped.

The latest was the attempt to put negroes from Missouri in the places of the striking teamsters at Chicago, which resulted as usual in an attack on them, the fatal wounding of some and the serious wounding of others. Of course that will have to be abandoned. When knowing the consequences that invariably follow, these importations are unjustifiable cruelty, and a provocation to violence and murder for which the importers are morally responsible and guilty.

When a Zuni Indian lover wants to propose to his girl he doesn't have to puzzle his wits making a speech appropriate to the occasion, but just walks in, sits down with his back to his sweety, and divests himself of his head gear. If the girl doesn't want him she sneaks out, but if she does she runs her fingers through his hair, and gives him a sort of dry shampoo, as it were. This has its advantages: it relieves the girl from the necessity of seeming sorry and from promising to be a sister to him, and the fellow from thinking about all the fool things he said and wanting to kick himself for being kicked.

— Winston Sentinel: The citizens of Forsyth who were duped by the Amos Owens Cherry Tree Company, have decided to enter suit in the Superior Court in this county against the company on the charge of fraud. It is learned that there are no less than one hundred people in this county who were caught by the cherry tree swindlers and the indictment promises to be both lively and interesting.

— Winston Journal: B. F. Jones, a prominent farmer of Yadkin county, was in the city yesterday. In an interview concerning the crops he said: "Wheat is looking better than it has been for years. I believe there will be more corn and grain in general raised this year than has been for a long while. And I don't believe there are twenty farmers in the county that has not got a tobacco patch."

— Salisbury Truth-Index: Frank Bates, colored, who has been serving a short term on the chain gang for carrying a concealed weapon, was accidentally killed Friday evening. He was under an embankment, when it caved in and killed him instantly. He had been warned of the danger, but did not heed it. Several others were injured at the same time, but probably will not have fatal results.

— Kinston Free Press: Something that in all probability never happened before in Kinston took place this morning, being a duel to the death between an alligator and a dog, and the alligator is now a dead member. Master Jasper Harper recently became the owner of an alligator that was brought to Kinston about 15 months ago by Mr. Lovit Hines from Florida and owned by Mr. J. T. Skinner until he gave it to Master Harper. The latter took the alligator out of its pool of water this morning to allow it to play in the back yard. He walked away, but hearing a noise turned and saw the alligator and "Duke" a bull dog owned by H. D. Harper, Jr., engaged in a fight. The alligator made a grab for "Duke," and narrowly missed getting a hold on the latter's nose. The alligator then made several swings with his tail, but the dog was too quick and got out of the way and watching his chance, made a sudden grab, getting the alligator back of his neck. He shook the alligator several times, turned loose, jumped back, and, resting a few seconds, made another grab on the neck, shaking the alligator again and finally threw it into the air. When the alligator landed it was dead.

— Fayetteville Observer: We are authorized to state that the Union Bleaching and Finishing Company, of New York, a company recently organized with a large capital, have decided to at once erect a large bleachery and finishing plant on the banks of Cross Creek in this city. The plant will be a ten-ton one, which means a bleaching and finishing capacity of 100,000 yards per day; and besides the bleaching and finishing of goods for cotton mills, will manufacture sheets and pillow cases. The employes, who will number about one hundred and fifty, will be obtained from this locality, except the more expert who will be brought from the North. When completed, this mill will be the finest of its kind in the South, if not the only one of its kind, and will equal any in the North. It will surely lead to the establishment of more cotton factories in this vicinity.

— Deputy Sheriff John McD. Monaghan, went out to Raeford Monday afternoon and that night he arrested a negro named Marshal Hodgen, on the charge of burning Mr. W. H. Britton's stables, barn and outhouse on April 28th, when eight mules perished and a great quantity of forage was burned. — W. H. Anderson, an ex-magistrate of Quewhiffle township, was committed to jail Tuesday on a peace warrant and the charge of assault and battery with a deadly weapon on George Koonce, also of Quewhiffle. The alleged assault happened near Raeford on last Sunday. Anderson was a government witness at the Federal Court in Wilmington in a blockading case, and he claims that he has been persecuted since his return home.

LOOSE MARRIAGE TIES.

The Mohammedan Husband May Break His at Will.

The Koran says the husband may divorce his wife without assigning any reason or giving any notice. He may rebuke, imprison and scourge her. He may twice divorce and twice take back the same woman, but if he a third time divorce her she cannot again become his wife until she has married and been divorced from some other man. (Sura, II, 230.)

Yet Ibrahim Halebi says: "In the absence of serious reasons no Musselman can justify divorce in the eyes of either religion or the law. If he abandon his wife, or put her away from simple caprice, he draws down upon himself the divine anger, for 'the curse of God,' said the prophet, 'rests upon him who repudiates his wife capriciously.'" Practically, however, a Mohammedan may whenever he pleases, without assigning any reason, say to his wife, "Thou art divorced," and she must then return to her parents. (Amir' Ali, Personal Law of Mohammedans, 332; Lane, Modern Egyptians, I, 150, 247.)

Among most of the Mohammedan peoples divorces are very frequent. According to Dr. Van der Berg, an even more fatal influence is exercised on family life in the east by this laxity of the marriage tie than by polygamy. In Cairo, according to Lane, there are not many men who have not divorced one wife if they have been married for a long time, and many men in Egypt have in the course of two years married as many as twenty, thirty or more wives, while there are women advanced in age who have been wives to a dozen or more men successively. In Morocco a man repudiates his wife on the slightest provocation and marries again. Among the Moors of the Sahara it is considered "low" for a couple to live very long together. (Westermarch, 519, 520.)

On the other hand, in India, among the Mohammedans, divorce is seldom heard of.—Green Bag.

A Carlsbad Cure.

The consulting room of a Carlsbad physician seems about the last place in the world for humorous incidents. Yet this is what happened in one of these haunts of the sick the other day. A new patient, after having been thoroughly cross examined by the doctor, had received minute instructions as to diet, etc., and was dismissed with this injunction, "As for smoking, you must limit yourself to three cigars daily; three light cigars and no more." After a few days the patient appears again in the consulting room. "Well, and how are you?" asks the physician.

"I should be all right," replies the patient, "but your orders about smoking are difficult to follow."

"I am sorry," the doctor says categorically, "but no more than three cigars a day. You must just put up with it."

"But, doctor, it really is an awful business. Wouldn't two a day do? I feel ill every time I smoke."

"Why, man, what in the world do you smoke for at all if that is the case?" the doctor roared.

"But, doctor, wasn't it you yourself who said 'three cigars a day and no more?' Of course I thought they were part of the cure and began upon them, though I've never in my life taken to smoking." Tableau!—Westminster Gazette.

A CHANGED MAN.

Utilization of a Phonograph During the Period of Courtship.

"No, I never have a bit of trouble with my husband," remarked the frail little woman with the intelligent face. "In fact, I have him right under my thumb."

"You don't look very strong," doubtfully commented the engaged girl.

"You mistake me, my dear. It's a mental, not a physical subjection."

"Would you mind telling me how"—

"Not a bit! Always glad to help any one steer clear of the rocks. First of all, you must know that a man in love is the biggest sort of a fool and says things that makes him almost wild when he hears 'em in after life. I realized it and from the very beginning of our courtship I kept a phonograph in my room, and every speech he made was duly recorded. Now whenever my husband gets a little bit obstreperous I just turn on a record or two. Heavens, how he does rave! But he can't deny it. They always will, though, if you don't have proof positive."

"Thank you," gratefully murmured the engaged girl. "I'll get a phonograph this very day."

IN CASE OF FIRE.

What to Do When a Person's Clothing Becomes Ignited.

Quick, intelligent work is imperative when a person's clothing becomes ignited. Your first move should be to get the person at length upon the floor. The easiest and safest way to accomplish this is by tripping. Then roll him over and over. This alone will go a long way toward smothering the flames, but at the same time lay hold of a rug, coat or anything thick with which the operation can be more speedily and effectually completed. A pailful of water will answer the purpose, perhaps, but do not take even ten seconds to obtain it. It is of vital importance that you make use of the nearest means. Strive to keep the flames away from the upper half of the body, for that is the most vulnerable portion of the human anatomy.

Should your own clothing catch fire it will require all of your courage and training to enable you to act rationally. The natural and almost overpowering impulse is to run. Don't; it only makes a bad matter rapidly worse. Lie down at once and roll yourself up in anything which will assist in smothering the flames. Fire has a strong upward tendency, and it will soon envelop your whole body if you remain on your feet. The danger of your inhaling the flames is also greatly increased and internal burns are pretty uniformly fatal.

So far I have used the masculine pronoun, but all of my directions apply with even more force to the women. It is a sad fact that three-fourths of those who suffer from burns belong to the fair sex. This is attributable, in a large measure, to the inflammable nature of their dress.—Good Housekeeping.

Cocoa, Cacao and Coca.

"Speaking of confusion in the use of words," said a visitor to the city from Nicaragua, "I read a story some time ago which was credited to a physician, and I was impressed with the belief that he was either misquoted or that he had got slightly mixed in his botany. He was talking about coca, cocaine, coco cola and things of that sort, and he attempted to straighten out some of the popular errors, but instead of doing so he made matters worse.

"Now, I am engaged in the business of a cacao planter near San Carlos, and I believe I ought to know something about the business. Cacao is one thing, cocoa is another and coca is still another. Cocoa is the ordinary cocoanut. Cocoa is not made from the seed of the chocolate tree, but chocolate is made from the seed of the cacao, the broma cacao. It is a rather curious fact that this word cacao is invariably spelled incorrectly in nearly all advertisements. Any good botanical dictionary will show you the difference between cocoa, the cocoanut palm; cacao, the broma cacao, and coca, the cocaine shrub. Yet these words are commonly confused and misspelled in newspapers and other advertising mediums, and the members of the medical profession, it seems, are not exempt from the same mistakes. They are separate things, with separate properties, and have separate uses."—New Orleans Times-Democrat.

COTTON MARKETS.

By Telegraph to the Morning Star.

NEW YORK, June 5.—The cotton market opened firm and three to six points higher, and during the first hour held very steady on fairly active demand from short European interests and the South, promoted by firmer Liverpool cables than due, reports of damage to the crop in the central belt by locusts and lice, and claims that rain was needed in parts of Texas. But as active public support did not come forward, the room longs quietly sold for profits, leaving the market without concerted support from any quarter. Liverpool closed steady at about the top, a net advance of one to two points and reported large spot sales (12,000 bales) at full former prices. Port and interior receipts were small; advices from Southern spot markets indicated a moderate demand from domestic spinners, and further inquiry from exporters for prompt shipment cotton. By midday the opening rise had been lost and near positions were a point or two under the final bids of last night. For the balance of the session the market followed a very narrow rut with speculative enthusiasm at a low ebb. The close was quiet with prices net seven points lower to three points higher, the near months showing a relatively easier position in the absence of business. The weather chart indicated little or no rain in the belt but the forecast pointed to showers over the eastern and western sections to-morrow.

NEW YORK, June 5.—Cotton quiet at 9¼c; net receipts — bales; gross receipts —bales; stock—no report.

Spot cotton closed quiet and ¼c lower; middling uplands 9¼c; middling gulf 9¼c; sales 5,200 bales.

DEMOCRATIC PLAN OF ORGANIZATION.

1. The unit of county organization shall be the voting precincts. In each precinct there shall be an executive committee, to consist of five active Democrats, who shall be elected by the Democratic voters at the several precincts in the meeting first called by the county executive committee. And said committee so elected shall elect one of its members as chairman, who shall preside at all committee meetings.

2. The chairmen of the several precinct committees shall compose the county executive committee, which shall meet at the same time and place as the county convention first held in each election year, and elect a chairman of said county committee who need not be a member of the committee, and he shall preside at all meetings of said committee, and shall hold his place until his successor shall be elected. A majority of said precinct chairmen, in person, or by proxy, shall constitute a quorum. The county committee shall likewise appoint a central committee of five, who shall act in its stead when the county committee is not in session.

3. In case there shall be a failure on the part of any precinct to elect its executive committee for a period of thirty days, the county executive committee shall appoint said committee from the Democratic voters of said precinct.

4. The members of the precinct committee shall elect to any vacancy occurring in said committee.

5. The county executive committee shall call all necessary conventions by giving at least ten days' notice by public advertisement in three public places in each precinct, at the court house door, and any Democratic newspapers that may be published in said county, requesting all Democrats of the county to meet in their respective precincts on a common day therein stated, which said day shall not be less than three days before the meeting of the county conventions, for the purpose of electing their delegates to the county conventions. Thereupon the meeting so held shall elect their delegates to represent the precincts in the county convention from the voters of the respective voting precincts, which delegates, or such of them as shall attend, shall vote the full Democratic strength of their respective voting precincts on all questions that may come before said county conventions. In case no meeting shall be held in any precinct in pursuance of said call, or no election shall be made, the precinct executive committee shall appoint such delegates.

PRIMARIES.

6. At every precinct meeting there shall (before the delegates to the county convention are elected) be a vote taken for the different candidates for office, whose names may be presented and the delegates shall vote in the county convention of their respective districts in accordance with this vote; that is to say, each candidate shall receive in the county convention that proportion of the vote to which the precinct may be entitled which he received in the precinct meeting. The chairman and secretary of the precinct meeting shall certify to the county convention the vote received by each candidate at the precinct meeting.

7. Each precinct shall be entitled to cast in the county convention one vote for every twenty-five Democratic votes, and one vote for fractions of thirteen Democratic votes cast by the township at the last preceding gubernatorial election. Provided, that every voting precinct shall be entitled to cast one vote, and each precinct may send as many delegates as it may see fit.

8. The chairmen of the precinct committees shall preside at all precinct meetings. In their absence any other member of said committees may preside.

COUNTY AND DISTRICT CONVENTIONS

1. The several county conventions shall be entitled to elect to their senatorial, judicial and congressional conventions one delegate and one alternate for every fifty Democratic votes, and one delegate for fractions of over twenty-five Democratic votes cast at the last preceding gubernatorial election in their respective counties; and none but delegates or alternates so elected shall be entitled to a seat in said conventions: Provided, further, That in all county conventions in which delegates shall be selected to attend any State, congressional, judicial or other convention, a vote shall be taken in accordance with the plan of organization as to the candidates whose names may be presented to such county convention. The delegates shall be selected from the friends and supporters of each candidate voted for, in proportion to the number of votes he shall receive in such county convention and no other instruction shall be given: Provided further, That when only one candidate is presented and voted for at each county convention it shall be lawful to instruct for such candidate.

2. At every county convention (before delegates to State, congressional, judicial, senatorial or other conventions are chosen) there shall be a vote taken for the different candidates for office whose names may be presented and the delegates shall vote their respective counties in accordance with this vote, that is to say each candidate shall receive in the State, congressional, judicial, senatorial or other convention the proportion of the vote to which the county may be entitled which he received in the county convention. The chairman and secretary of the county convention shall certify to each convention the vote received by each candidate given: Provided, That where only one candidate is presented it shall be lawful to instruct for him. At all State and district conventions the delegates from the different counties may disregard the vote of their respective counties as to any candidate: Provided, That a two-thirds majority of all his votes from the county consent.

3. The chairman, or in his absence any member of the county, senatorial, judicial and congressional convention shall call to order their respective conventions and hold chairmanship thereof until the convention shall elect its chairman.

4. The executive committees of the senatorial, congressional and judicial districts, respectively, shall, at the call of their respective chairmen, meet at some time and place in their respective districts, and the chairmen of said respective committees shall immediately notify the chairmen of the different county executive committees of the said appointment and the said county executive committee shall forthwith call conventions of their respective counties in conformity to said notice to send delegates to said respective district conventions.

STATE CONVENTIONS.

The State convention shall be composed of delegates appointed by the several county conventions. Each county shall be entitled to elect one delegate and one alternate for every one hundred and fifty Democratic votes and one delegate for fractions over seventy-five Democratic votes cast therein at the last preceding gubernatorial election; and none but delegates or alternates so elected shall be entiled to seats in said convention: Provided, That every county shall have at least one vote in the convention.

Resolution passed at meeting of executive committee, November 30, 1897:

"Resolved, That in accordance with the resolution hereinbefore adopted, all white electors who intend to vote with us in the next election, and who desire the re-establishment of Anglo-Saxon supremacy and honest government in North Carolina are cordially invited to participate in all our primaries and conventions."

GENERAL RULES.

1. At all conventions the delegates shall be selected as near as may be from the friends and supporters of the candidates voted for.

2. Such delegates—or alternates of absent delegates—as may be present at any Democratic convention shall be allowed to cast the whole vote to which their precinct or county may be entitled.

3. In all conventions provided for by this system, after a vote is cast, there shall be no change in such votes until the final result of the ballot shall be announced by the chairman of said convention.

4. All Democratic executive committees shall have the power to fill any vacancies occurring in their respective bodies.

5. The chairmen of the different county conventions shall certify the list of delegates and alternates of the different district and State conventions, and a certified list of said delegates and alternates to the secretary of the State central committee.

6. It shall be the duty of the county committee and its chairman to furnish such information and make such reports to the chairman of the State committee as he may desire.

FRIDAY MORNING, JUNE 6.

IN VIRGINIA COAL FIELDS.

Miners' Strike Scheduled for Next Saturday—Cannot Be Averted—Preparations by Mine Operators.

By Telegraph to the Morning Star.

ROANOKE, VA., June 5.—From present indications it is believed here that the general strike among the soft coal miners of Virginia and West Virginia, which has been scheduled for next Saturday, will go into effect, and that practically all the fields will will be tied up on that day.

W. R. Sheets, purchasing agent of the Turkey Gap Coal and Coke Company, of West Virginia, who has been engaged in the fields for more than ten years and is familiar with the situation as it now exists there, arrived today, and said a strike cannot be averted. He states that the trouble is being brought about by labor agitators from the anthracite regions who wish to tie up the soft coal mines and hasten the end of the Pennsylvania strike. The mine operators are anxious now that the strike shall take place, as they believe that this is the only solution of the trouble. New laborers have already been employed by some to take the places of strikers as soon as they come out, guards have been employed to protect those who wish to work, supplies have been provided against a tie up, and men have been notified that they can either work or quit, but that if they choose the latter course they must immediately get off the mine reservations.

A special from Bluefield, W. Va., says that there is considerable alarm felt there on account of the strike situation and that it is feared trouble may result. Many miners, both union and non-union, are leaving the coal fields. The strike will occur either to morrow or Saturday.

HUNTINGTON, W. Va., June 5.—The coal operators of West Virginia will meet here to-morrow night and Saturday, to take final action on the strike ordered at the end of this week. A dispatch from Welch, W. Va., [illegible] last week in April. Dispatches from Bluefield, W. Va., states that the operators of Flat Top and Tug River districts are arriving to-night for a meeting to-morrow relative to the proposed strike. A dispatch from Eckman, W. Va., to night states that more than 500 mine workers quit today and that the remainder say they will quit Saturday night.

J. X. Hill, president of the Western Kanawha Coal Company, which controls almost all the mines in the Guyandotte Valley, stated here to-night that he would comply with the demands of the United Mine Workers for an advance.

RIOTOUS PROCEEDINGS.

A Scrimmage in the French Chamber of Deputies—Fisticuffs Exchanged.

By Cable to the Morning Star.

PARIS, June 5.—During a dispute in the Chamber of Deputies to-day, M. DeLargentaye, a reactionary deputy from the Eotes du Nord, exclaimed: "You Republicans are swindlers and traitors and in a way foreigners."

A number of Republican deputies retorted hotly, whereupon M. DeLargentaye added excitedly: "And your president of the republic is a thief."

A scrimmage, during which fisticuffs were exchanged, ensued, half a dozen deputies including the Marquis de Dion, M. Millevoye and M. Meslier taking part in the fighting.

The dispute which caused the fight arose over Nationalist posters, in which the Republicans were attacked in violent language. Several of the Nationalist deputies to-day approved those expressions, and in the row which followed the participants freely exchanged insults, such as "blackguard" and "thief."

An official of the chamber had to intervene between the combatants.

NEGRO LYNCHED.

Implicated in Murder of Mrs. J. K. Jones, Near Ravenel, S. C.

By Telegraph to the Morning Star.

CHARLESTON, S. C., June 5.—Jim Black, a negro implicated in the murder of the wife of J. K. Jones, a section master of the Atlantic Coast Line, was lynched near Ravenel last night by a mob of men who secured him from a posse of officers while enroute to jail. Black committed the crime some weeks ago, and escaped, but was captured near Savannah yesterday and was being brought to Ravenel for confinement when apprehended by the mob. The negro confessed his crime, naming another negro as an accessory.

THE COTTON INDUSTRY.

Report of Representatives of English Manufacturers on Conditions in America.

By Telegraph to the Morning Star.

LONDON, June 5.—Representatives of the Lancashire cotton manufacturers, who have just returned from a tour of investigation in the United States, say they found the cotton industry in America, especially the manufacture of fancy cloths, to be fully up to their expectations, but they add, the labor conditions in the South are decidedly bad. The representatives were particularly struck with the success of the automatic loom and recommend it to the serious attention of the English manufacturers.

SENATE DEBATE CANAL PROJECT.

Argument of Senator Hanna of Ohio in Favor of the Panama Route.

PROCEEDINGS IN THE HOUSE.

Anti-Anarchy Bill Discussed — General Debate to Close To-day—Military Academy Appropriation Bill Passed the Senate.

By Telegraph to the Morning Star.

WASHINGTON, June 5.—In further consideration of the Isthmian canal project the Senate heard to-day two speeches, neither of which was completed. Senator Hanna, of Ohio, spoke in favor of the Spooner amendment conferring upon the President authority to purchase the rights of the Panama Canal Company if a valid title could be obtained; otherwise he shall decide upon the Nicaragua route. Senator Mitchell supported the Hepburn bill for the construction of the canal by the Nicaragua route.

Seldom has a Senator been accorded a more attentive hearing than that given Senator Hanna. Eliminating sentiment he considered the Panama route much to be preferred to the Nicaragua route, as it provided an interoceanic waterway much shorter and one that could be traversed at less expense than the Nicaragua route. He maintained that the United States was to build the canal to accommodate the commerce of the world, and that fact must be taken into account. He was in favor of the Panama route, because he had been convinced by stubborn facts that it was the better of the two.

Senator Mitchell urged the passage of the Hepburn bill, maintaining that unless the Nicaragua route was determined upon definitely by Congress it would mean the indefinite postponement and perhaps the ultimate defeat of any canal legislation. He discussed at great length the general canal question, insisting that the Nicaragua route was entirely feasible and practicable, while the Panama route involved difficulties which were scarcely to be surmounted.

Before the canal discussion was resumed the Senate passed the Military Academy appropriation bill, providing for extensive improvements at West Point.

Senator Hanna, in his remarks, said he had shared the common belief at first that the Nicaragua route was the only one to be considered, but the United States was deterred fom embarking upon that project and in the light of events the fates seemed to have interferred to prevent us from making a mistake. Discussing the two great routes, Senator Hanna said the Panama route was only forty-nine miles long, while that of Nicaragua was 189 miles in length. "You build your canal" said he, "to provide for the passage of ships from ocean to ocean in the least possible time and at the least expense." A canal constructed on such lines, he insisted, meant success.

Senator Hanna referred to the seismic disturbances in the canal region and suggested that those disturbances ought to cause the American Congress to pause and consider the suggested dangers seriously. He referred to some maps arranged around the walls of the Senate chamber, showing the number of active and inactive volcanoes in the canal region, demonstrating that there were more volcanoes in the neighborhood of the Nicaragua route than in that of the Panama route. He maintained that the cost of the Nicaraguan canal would be immensely greater in point of construction and operation than the Panama canal and he said he was prepared to demonstrate that the Nicaragua canal could not be operated at night.

Discussing the Spooner substitute, he denied emphatically that it was a subterfuge intended to delay and procrastinate. He explained that if the President were not satisfied with the Panama Company's title, he could proceed to build the canal by the Nicaragua route, provided that all conditions and concessions were satisfactory.

Senator Mitchell, in the course of his general argument in favor of an isthmian canal, said that if shippers could send their products from the Pacific coast to Europe by way of an isthmian canal, sailing vessels would be employed where now only steamers were used, thus reducing enormously the freight rates now paid. He maintained that sailing vessels could not go through the Panama canal without the assistance of steam or electricity, on account of the calms.

Adverting to the danger of seismic disturbances Senator Mitchell declared the authorities indicated that the danger from earthquakes was 100 per cent. greater in the region of the Panama route than in that of the Nicaragua route. In neither case was the danger sufficient to render hazardous the construction of the canal.

House of Representatives.

The general debate on the anti-anarchy bill was ended to-day except for two speeches to be made to-morrow. Mr. Littlefield, of Maine, will make the closing argument in support of the measure. The debate to-day, like that of yesterday, was devoted to legal arguments over controverted questions involved in the proposed legislation.

Mr. DeArmond, Missouri, defended some of the features of the bill that had been attacked. But he believed the thirteenth section of the bill was not constitutional and the section designed to protect foreign ambassadors and ministers should be stricken out.

Mr. Williams, Mississippi, supported the bill. He said he found nothing in it that was unconstitutional or undemocratic. He was opposed to the bill as reported from the committee because it circumscribed the crime with conditions which might embarrass the prosecution.

Mr. Clark, Missouri, declared that the expeditious trial of Colgosz at Buffalo was an honor to the jurisprudence of New York, while that of Guiteau, in Washington, was a disgrace to that of the District of Columbia.

The President to-day sent to the House the report of Colonel Crowder who made the investigation of the charges of Governor Heard, of Louisiana, that the neutrality laws were being violated at Chalmette, La. The message of transmittal is purely formal. It encloses a copy of a letter written by the President's direction to Governor Heard dated June 3rd, which sums up the main facts as follows by Colonel Crowder and also gives the rules as international usage respecting the sale of goods to parties at war. Mr. Hay says the serious point in the charges submitted by Mr. Pearson and by the Boer legislative committee of Philadelphia was that the British authorities had enlisted men in this country for service in South Africa. The government made particular efforts to find out if there was any basis for this charge, but Mr. Hay says that Colonel Crowder's report shows that not a single instance could be discovered by him. Mr. Hay says that this charge must be considered not only as unproved but as having been made without the slightest pretence of justification or proof.

PROCEEDINGS IN THE BRITISH PARLIAMENT.

A Vote of £50,000 to Lord Kitchener for Services in South Africa—Opposed by Irish Nationalists.

By Cable to the Morning Star.

LONDON, June 5.—In accordance with King Edward's message to the House of Commons yesterday, the government leader, A. J. Balfour, in the House this afternoon, asked for a vote of £50,000 to Lord Kitchener.

Mr. Balfour, in supporting the motion, referred to Lord Kitchener's rapid promotion. He said it had been given to few public servants to compass so much work for their country in so short a time as Lord Kitchener. Lord Kitchener had to meet with unique difficulties. He had erected no fewer than four thousand miles of block houses and in the conduct of the campaign had shown the fertile range of his resources, boundless courage, energy and resolution, and to these qualities Great Britain owed the termination of the war.

The Liberal leader, Sir Henry Campbell-Bannerman, who seconded the motion, paid a warm tribute to Lord Kitchener as a soldier and statesman.

John Dillon, Irish Nationalist, led the opposition in behalf of the Nationalists. Mr. Dillon said he and his friends absolutely objected to the vote, because they were opposed to the policy of the war in South Africa and the conduct of the campaign, which involved wholesale devastation of the country, the burning of farms and sacrifice of life. Henry Labouchere also opposed the vote.

William Redmond, Irish Nationalist, caused a scene of great disorder by remarking that Lord Kitchener would go down to history as a general who "had made war on women and children."

This remark called forth loud cries of "withdraw" and appeals to the chairman to call Mr. Redmond to order. The chairman said the expression used was not disorderly, but a majority of the house refused to listen any furiher to Mr. Redmond and interrupted him with all kinds of shouts.

After a quarter of an hour, [illegible] by Mr. Redmond in [illegible] to gain a hearing, the cloture was moved.

The cloture was adopted by 273 to 138 votes, and the grant of £50,000 to Lord Kitchener was carried, 380 to 44 votes.

The minority consisted of Irish Nationalists and two or three Radicals.

When Mr. Balfour rose to move a vote of thanks to the officers and men of the army of South Africa, the uproar was renewed by the Irish Nationalists as a protest against the treatment of Mr. Redmond. Sir Henry Campbell-Bannerman seconded the motion, which was adopted, 382 to 42.

The Prince of Wales and many peeresses were present in the House of Lords to-day when Lord Salisbury moved a vote of thanks to the officers and men of the Imperial forces in South Africa. The motion especially included the Colonial troops. The premier said that not long ago many people in Europe thought that the time of the downfall of the British Empire had arrived. But the Colonial troops came brilliantly to Great Britain's assistance. It was shown that when the country was denuded of troops, her naval supremacy was sufficient to protect her, and Great Britain was never safer than during the period of the war.

Earl Spencer, the Liberal leader in the House of Lords, added his tribute to the British forces in South Africa and the motion was carried unanimously.

CHICAGO TEAMSTERS' STRIKE

Agreement Between the Meat Packers and Their Employes—A Partial Victory for the Teamsters.

By Telegraph to the Morning Star

Chicago, June 5—Five hundred teamsters assembled at Corcoran Hall, near the stock yards at noon, and ratified unanimously the agreement made between their representatives and the packers at 4 o'clock this morning. The document was signed by Albert Young, president of the National Teamsters Union, and by John Myer, president of the local union. It was then taken by President Job, of the State Arbitration Board, to the several packers for their signatures. The utmost harmony prevailed, the occasion asuming the character of a jollification over the settlement of the strike. The men decided to return to work to-morrow morning.

The agreement is a partial victory for the teamsters in that the packers have declared that they will not discriminate against members of the union. The scale agreed upon is two cents lower than that demanded by the men.

The agreement was read to them and was greeted with cheers. The concessions made to the packers were explained and the explanation was applauded. The concessions made by the packers were likewise dilated on and there were more cheers. It was obvious that the men were extremely content with their fight and happy that the worst riots in Chicago since 1894 had passed into history.

Only a few of the men returned to the yards to resume work. The great majority of them, worn out with much fighting and long hours on picket duty, declared the r intention of putting in about eighteen hours of sleep before again taking up the reins. As the men passed out of the hall a huge van carrying meat and driven by a clerk rumbled past. The men cheered again—cheering a man who, yesterday, would have found a far different reception at their hands. The driver answered with a wave of the hand and the truck lumbered on, typical of the peace of a city where but twenty-four hours before there had been riot and bloodshed.

Another Strike Threatened.

The men who have been discharged are members of the Stock Yards Employes Union. Their organization is affiliated with the Butchers' Union. Michael Donnelly, president of the North American Meat Cutters Union, has been asked to adjust the trouble.

Late to-night a conference for to-morrow between Mr. Donnelly and A. W. Leonard, superintendent of the United States Stock Yards Transit Company, was arranged. Mr. Leonard will be asked to reinstate the men who have been discharged and unless he consents to do so it is said that the five thousand butchers employed in the different packing plants will be called out on strike.

Fourteen chapters of the Phi Kappa Alpha Greek letter fraternity are represented in the convention of the organization at Norfolk, Va. Five new chapters have been admitted during the past year and the fraternity is in a flourishing condition.

ANTHRACITE COAL MINERS' STRIKE.

An Uneventful Day With No Material Change in the Situation.

A FEW SMALL SCRIMMAGES.

More Men Join the Ranks of the Strikers Operators Still Able to Fill Places of Those Who Desert—N. Y. Board of Trade Resolutions.

By Telegraph to the Morning Star.

WILKESBARRE, PA., June 5.—This was an uneventful day in the anthracite coal miners' strike and probably the quietest since the engineers, firemen and pumpmen were called out last Monday. There were the usual scrimmages in several parts of the Wyoming valley in which workmen who refused to desert the companies generally got the worst of it. No one, as far as is known, was seriously hurt. The work of the miners' pickets and the stoning by boys and young men is having its effect. Each day a fewer number of men leave their homes for the mines, fearing they may not again get home alive.

It was stated at strike headquarters to-night that thirty-three additional men had joined the ranks of the strikers during the day and that more are expected out to-day.

The operators are still able to fill the places of those that desert or are forced to quit. Most of the companies have exhausted the force of company employes and are now using non-union men more freely.

The action of the New York Board of Trade in requesting President Roosevelt to take up the matter of settling the strike aroused considerable interest. President Mitchell had nothing to say when he was asked for an expression of opinion on the new move. He said he knew nothing about it except what he had read in the newspapers. Mr. Mitchell kept close to his office all day. He spent his time in conferring with committeemen from various parts of the coal fields, and did an unusual amount of telephoning.

He said there was nothing new in regard to a settlement of the strike and expressed himself as satisfied with the progress of the miners' campaign.

The mining superintendents who were seen to-day had nothing new to add to the day's budget of news. All of them said they were getting along fairly well. They continue to have trouble in operating their pumps, however, and in some mines the water is creeping up slowly, notwithstanding the strenuous efforts of the men on hand to keep it down. This is caused mostly by a lack of firemen to keep up enough steam, and also to the fact that some of the men have to fill dual positions.

Board of Trade Resolutions.

WASHINGTON, June 5.—President Roosevelt to-day received by mail the resolutions adopted by the New York Board of Trade and Transportation, urging him to take steps to end the strike.

It is yet too early to say what action the President will take in the matter.

BEET SUGAR SENATORS.

Conference With Republican Members of the Senate Committee on Cuban Relations.

By Telegraph to the Morning Star

WASHINGTON, June 5.—The committee appointed by the beet sugar Senators, consisting of Senators Burrows, Elkins and Jones of Nevada, to confer with the Republican members of the Senate Committee on Cuban Relations as to the degree of relief to be given to the Cubans in the way of tariff concessions or otherwise, had their first meeting with the committee to-day. The meeting was attended on the part of the committee by Senators Platt of Connecticut, Cullom and Spooner. No agreement was reached and an adjournment was taken until to-morrow. The proposition to grant a rebate on Cuban products was made by the beet sugar representatives. The proposition was not flatly rejected, but Mr. Platt stated on behalf of the committee that he was not now prepared or disposed to accept it.

The conference for a time took the shape of a discussion of the wisdom of a general revision of the tariff, but it was generally agreed that this is not desirable from any point of view. The beet sugar men then urged that there was no more reason for a reduction of the duty on sugar and tobacco than upon other commodities. They contended that it would be unfair to make a reduction upon these articles and not upon others and said that if the pending legislation should be enacted into law the Republican party would be held responsible for legislation affecting adversely the farming interests.

GEORGIA DEMOCRATS.

Primaries for State Officers—Terrell Nominated for Governor.

By Telegraph to the Morning Star.

ATLANTA, June 5.—Incomplete returns received to-night from the Democratic primaries held throughout this State to-day show that the following State ticket has been nominated: For Governor, J. M. Terrell; Secretary of State, Philip Cook; Comptroller General, W. A. Wright; State Treasurer, R. E. Park; Attorney General, J. C. Hart; State School Commissionr, W. B. Merritt; Agricultural Commissionr, O. B. Stevens; Prison Commissioner, Thos. Eason; Associate Justices of Supreme Court, A. G. Cobb and Samuel Lumpkin; U. S. Senator A. S. Clay was renominated for the short term. The election of the ticket nominated to-day will be held in October next. A heavy vote was polled throughout the State, and advices received to-night give Terrell a large majority over Estill and Guerry, the other two candidates entered in the gubernatorial race. Terrell carried this (Fulton) county by a safe majority.

INDIANA WHITE-CAPPERS.

White Woman Taken from Her Home and Flogged by a Mob.

By Telegraph to the Morning Star.

NEW ALBANY, IND., June 5.—Mrs. Alice Hanger, wife of Otto Hanger, a farmer, living about thirty miles west of this city, was taken from her home last night by a band of twenty white-cappers, tied to a tree in the yard and severely switched. Her husband was held under guard in the house by a portion of the gang, while she was flogged.

After the whipping, the woman was warned by the band to be more careful in her care of her step-children or she would receive another visit from the mob.
